Calendar Of Signet Letters Of Henry IV And Henry V

by England J. L Kirby Great Britain

Calendar of Signet letters of Henry IV and Henry V (1399 - 1422) ed. by J. L. Kirby (HMSO, London, 1978). This work contains the Calendar of Signet Letters of Henry IV and Henry V (1399-1422). It is a comprehensive resource for scholars interested in the political and legal history of medieval England, providing detailed records of the correspondence between the Crown and its officials, as well as with foreign dignitaries.

The Calendar of Signet Letters of Henry IV and Henry V is an important source for understanding the political and legal actions of the time. It provides insight into the relationships between different countries, and the negotiations between leaders. It is a valuable resource for historians and students of medieval history, offering a unique perspective on the political landscape of the period.

The Calendar of Signet Letters of Henry IV and Henry V is published by the British Library, and is available online for use and study. It is an important tool for anyone interested in the history of England during this period, and is an essential resource for anyone researching medieval history.