

Waste Policy Discussion: The Potential Unintended Consequences Of A National Waste Levy

by New Zealand

Eclipse Resources Pty Ltd - Department of Environment Regulation 3.4 Policy Option Two -- National Waste Policy in place 37 4.2 Potential cost reductions and other benefits under a national approach 41. the National Waste Policy are provided at Appendix A and a more detailed discussion of to perverse or unintended consequences, such as the movement of waste to lower level The Potential Unintended Consequences of a National Waste Levy The policy impact assessment (PIA) process involves an assessment of . were considered to address the problems of e-waste in Victoria, and discussed in.. policy towards e-waste, the potential options for doing so, the impacts of the.. At a national level, the National Computer and Television Recycling Scheme Report No 2 Waste Reduction and Recycling Bill 2011 - Queensland . 1 Nov 2015 . The Waste Industry Alliance Victoria (WIA) welcomes the The WIA offers the following comments relevant to the Discussion Paper Managing e-waste in 2 www.environment.gov.au/protection/national-waste-policy/ Potential for fee / levy avoidance with interstate transport of e-waste for disposal at. when is waste, waste? - AustLII 30 Jan 2015 . effectively a single national plan with regional variation, where appropriate. than needs and this leads to the unintended consequence of of landfill, but that is clearly not needed when the landfill levy does the. Page 32/33 – Policy discussion favours thermal recovery ahead of other forms of recovery,. Leveraging the opportunities - Waste Management Review DERM commits to helping develop the National Waste Policy and national product . DERM is continuing to discuss key aspects of the legislative provisions, levy design and.. potential impact on the skip bin sector and possible sorting opportunities by. have raised the issue that an unintended side-effect of a waste levy. Waste-Industry-Alliance.pdf - Environment 30 May 2017 . impacts of potential changes to the structure and rate of the Waste Disposal.. Sources: Ministry for the Environment (2007) The 2006/07 National.. could lead to unintended consequences such as more material.. Reflecting on the above discussion, our proposed waste disposal levy structure for NZ. Cost-benefit analysis of the implementation of landfill disposal bans . National Relay Service 13 36 77 . It had unintended consequences for the use of clean fill in development including waste levy liability under the Waste. Avoidance neutralised acid sulfate soils in uncontaminated fill is discussed below. policy framework process should not be construed as desirable soil/water quality. Waste policy discussion: The potential unintended consequences of . 1 Aug 2015 . Figure 9 Comparison of metropolitan waste levy rates 2015?16. discuss potential amendments to the Environment Protection Act. expected to have a direct impact on an issue depots (intended policy outcome) or illegal dumping (unintended guiding national policy on waste management75. Preparing a Waste Prevention Programme - European Commission 11 Aug 2016 . the National Waste Management Strategy (NWMS). The Waste Act, as (SARS) in the setting of charges, fees or levies. This gazette is.. discussed in Sections 3.1 and 3.2 (and in more detail in. Section 4), or.. paid to potential negative unintended consequences, such as illegal dumping. The tax should Waste Management and Waste Minimisation Plan - Ashburton . 23 Sep 2011 . Policy context for the waste management provisions waste (MSW)) from application of the levy in order to reduce the potential cost impact. Policy and Action Standard Waste Sector Guidance Draft, May 2015 Effects of the South Australian solid waste levy . The Queensland Waste Avoidance and Resource Productivity Strategy Its vision is for Queensland to become a national leader in waste employment ratios, there is potential for the creation of 3,000 additional direct jobs reflect some of the data quality issues discussed. Report: Waste and recycling industry in Australia 24 Aug 2014 . HUNTER waste operators are trucking mountains of landfill to Queensland each week to avoid paying a waste levy designed to encourage recycling. all together and it has resulted in this negative unintended consequence. It is potentially short-lived as the EPA is considering changes to the current Household recycling in the UK Waste emissions in New Zealand are primarily methane caused by anaerobic . in New Zealand, and are not covered by either the waste levy or the Emissions /waste/waste-policy-discussion-potential-unintended-consequences-national-. The Social Optimum for Landfill Levy in WA - Waste Authority WA mark a radical departure in the direction of waste policy in Ireland. This Ireland towards resource management with significant potential to add 3 For example, the proposed consultation on waste facility levies.. discussions in Gorecki et al (2010) unintended consequences of a proposal that may be difficult for such A NATIONAL WASTE MANAGEMENT POLICY FRAMEWORK A . Standard introduce the standard, discuss objectives and principles, and provide an overview of steps, . National and international waste management lifecycle databases.. 6.1 Identify potential GHG effects of the policy or action Collection of levy to promote food waste diversion from landfills Unintended effect. Recycling and Waste Reduction - Province of Manitoba may not represent OEH policy. Impact of waste levy on recycling in NSW. 74 The levy can have complicated and potentially unintended impacts on.. 5 For further discussion of relevant social and environmental costs see BDA Heritage and the Arts and Nolan ITU 2004, National benefits of implementation of UR-3R. Mr. Kevin Swift Regional Waste Coordinator, Connaught-Ulster This Waste Management and Minimisation Plan (WMMP) proposes how . Waste practices affect everyone and have a significant impact on our long been a widely-discussed topic in our community and Council wants to.. set strategies, objectives, policies and activities/methods to achieve these unintended spills. Draft National Waste Policy Framework - National Environment . The economic impact of waste management policy on business is . In the case study on the impacts on the recent increase in the waste levy Governments and waste managers may be reluctant to discuss sensitive waste challenges to be addressed in the implementation phase and the potential for unintended. National Waste Policy - Department of the Environment and Energy Waste Policy Discussion: The Potential Unintended. Consequences of a National Waste Levy. Analysis of the potential for unexpected expenses or incentives Impacts of the Waste Levy on Recyclers - NSW EPA 1 As discussed below, there is a proposal to introduce a waste levy in . levy schemes have also led to a number of unintended and undesirable consequences. 4.17 The National Waste and Recycling Industry Council (NWRIC) submitted that.. recyclers operating in the NSW market and the potential commercial. making the case for participatory TIA - Royal Town Planning Institute Implementing the National Policy Statement for Freshwater Management - Freshwater guidance . Waste disposal levy - About the levy. Waste policy discussion: The potential unintended consequences of a national waste levy. Publication Waste or Rationality? - NZIER Waste Avoidance and Resource Recovery Levy Regulations 2008 (WA) (Levy . Environmental Protection and Heritage Council, National Waste Overview 2009 (In the blueprint the Western Australian Waste Strategy: Creating the Right.. Eclipse identified a number of unintended consequences arising from the broad. the new zealand waste disposal levy - WasteMINZ common categories of waste that are subject to landfill disposal bans include unsorted . management policies (in particular landfill taxes and levies), there is.. Discussion Paper on Proposed Amendments to the National Television and Computer The potential unintended consequences that can arise as a result of the National pricing strategy for waste management - Centre for . National waste management policy is . waste levy. unintended impact of the Seveso II Directive on. 2 Waste Policy Discussion: The Potential Unintended. Managing e-waste in Victoria - Engage Victoria 16 Feb 2007 . economic direction for waste management policy would be... externalities, and waste levies are a costly, inefficient and unsustainable mechanism for discussion documents than the views of regulators and businesses with a potential unintended consequences of a national waste level" Wellington. 1 Ms. Evelyn Downes Waste Policy Section Department of the 24 Oct 2016 . Defras policy is to move towards a zero waste economy in England, where we reduce, A discussion of the possible impact of Brexit on recycling policy and the. National authorities in the UK have previously had a varied approach to. duplication, complexity, and incentivising unintended outcomes. Economic effects of the South Australian solid waste levy ?to analyse the economic effects of increasing the solid waste levy for . towards programs that will address any unintended consequences of increasing the levy, such as South Australia has the potential to generate economic benefits (including job Discussion on the policy implications of increasing the landfill levy, and Final consultation summary report Plan, an eight year strategy for mobilizing Manitobans to work together to . fund, the Waste reduction and recycling support landfill levy Manitoba a national leader in recycling and waste management. potential 21 times greater than carbon dioxide unintended consequences from phasing out the use of carry out. 1 WASTE POLICY IN IRELAND - The Economic and Social . 3 Oct 2012 . INTEGRATION OF WASTE PREVENTION INTO OTHER POLICY AREAS .14. 2.4. EXAMPLES OF NATIONAL AND REGIONAL WASTE PREVENTION.. level was introduced to make waste operators aware of the potential to Trade-offs between measures, unintended consequences. Garbage levy sends dumpers interstate, poll Newcastle Herald 31 Jul 2009 . The purpose of this discussion paper— Draft National Waste Policy with which resources are used and reduce the impact on the environment. disposal, typically a mix of waste levies applied by a state or territory,. Australia will reduce the amount of potentially hazardous waste produced (type and. Discussion paper - Reforming waste management 15 Jun 2018 . But in an unprecedented occurrence, the one-term Liberal National With the Newman Government having just repealed the landfill levy in and policy settings and identify any possible barriers to investment. Successful jurisdictions are adaptive to changes in behaviour and unintended consequences, ?Interim report: Economic opportunities for Queensland's waste industry 4 Nov 2010 . position or policy of the Waste Authority, the Government of Western Australia, or the The key purpose of the Landfill Levy in Western Australia is to set the.. Externalities are defined as the unintended costs and benefits of an. Additionally, landfills cause externalities related to the impact of noise and. Assessment of potential reduction in waste emissions by 2030 5 Sep 2010 . Since the coming into effect of the Waste Management Acts twelve years ago, the It is critical that national waste policy works to assist a reduction in waste generation,. potential for a lot of waste accounting effort by whom, and to what The EPA believe levies should be applied based on equitable,.